POPE'S TOP PRIORITY HEAL WOUND THROUGH ECUMENISM, SUN WORSHIP, AND MINGLING WITH MIRY CLAY

1. What questions did the disciples ask Jesus? Matthew 24:3 _____
2. What specific book of the Bible does Jesus say we are to study, in order to understand the nearness of His return? Matthew 24:14,15 _____
3. Let us read Daniel 2:1-30.
4. What are the details of Nebuchadnezzar's dream that Daniel interprets? Daniel 2:31-35 _____
5. What does the stone represent that hits the image on its feet and breaks it in pieces? Daniel 2:44,45; 1 Peter 2:6-8; Ephesians 2:20 _____
6. The image's head of gold represents which kingdom? Daniel 2:36-38; Daniel 1:1 _____
7. The image's chest and arms of silver represents which kingdom? Which kingdom overthrew Babylon and ruled the world thereafter? Daniel 2:39; Daniel 5:28-31; Daniel 7:1 _____
8. The image's belly and thighs of brass represent which kingdom? Which kingdom overthrew the Medes and Persians and ruled the world thereafter? Daniel 2:39; Daniel 8:5-7,20,21 _____
9. The image's legs of iron represent which kingdom? Which kingdom ruled the world after Greece? Daniel 2:40; Luke 2:1; John 19:19,20 _____
10. What elements are revealed in the image's feet and toes? Daniel 2:41 _____
11. The iron in the image's feet and toes represents the second phase of Rome, which is Papal Rome.
12. The Papacy ruled the world from A.D. 538 to 1798. However, just before the stone hits the image on its feet, the Papacy will be re-emerging as a world ruler.
13. Who does the clay represent? Answer: In the primary sense, the clay represents the nations of the world. See Isaiah 40:15. Compare Genesis 2:7 with Job 33:6 and discover that the nations are likened unto dust or clay.
14. Note: Just before the second coming of Christ the iron will be mingling with the clay; the Papacy will be mingling with the leaders of the world. Consider the fact that the all the metals of the image represent world rulers. Therefore the clay must represent world rulers.
15. Note: Daniel 2:41 mentions iron and potters' clay. As the iron mingles with clay, the clay is called miry clay. Potters' clay is used to represent God's people, in the sense that probation is not yet closed and God wants to mold and fashion them. See Jeremiah 18:1-6; Isaiah 64:8. On the contrary, miry clay represents the condition of the people who have grieved God's Spirit and there is no healing and their probation is about to close. See Ezekiel 47:11 and Job 30:18,19.
16. Additionally, the Hebrew word for miry clay implies the idea of dirt that has no value and should be immediately swept away, because probation has closed. See Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Hebrew Dictionary #2917, 2916. The connotation of the Hebrew word for miry clay is the definition given in Daniel 2:35.
17. Note: Once the leaders and people of the nations unite with the Papacy, they become miry clay and are about to be swept away. See Daniel 2:42-45.
- 18a. Current events show that the nations are about to be swept away, because they are mingling with the Papacy.

<http://nypost.com/2015/02/05/pope-francis-to-become-first-pope-to-address-congress/>
- 18c. On Sept. 25, Pope Francis will speak to the world leaders—most likely the largest number of assembled heads of state and government in history <http://americamagazine.org/issue/call-virtue>
- 19a. What will be the result of the Papacy mingling with the leaders and people of the nations? Answer: Consider the fact that when the Jewish nation and church united with Caesar of Rome, they refused to acknowledge Jesus as their King; they denied Jesus of worship and gave worship and homage to Rome. See John 19:14-16. World leaders are already calling the pope king and God.

- 19c. Bush Says He Sees God in Eyes of Pope <http://www.zenit.org/en/articles/bush-says-he-sees-god-in-eyes-of-pope>
20. What should be given to Jesus our king that they Jewish leaders refused to give Him? Mark 15:17-19 _____
21. As the leaders and people of the Jewish nation united with Rome (iron and clay), what did Jesus prophesy? Matthew 23:37,38; Matthew 24:1-2 _____ In A.D. 70 the Jewish nation and temple were utterly destroyed.
22. Note: Just before the stone hits the image, the second coming of Jesus, the Papacy will be mingling with the nations and will enforce a false day of worship.
23. Once the leaders and people of the Jewish nation united with Rome, who did they decide and attempted to kill? John 12:9-11; Acts 4:26-33; Luke 23:12; Acts 12:1-3 _____
24. What is the desired objective of the iron mingling with the clay, the Papacy mingling with the leaders and people of the nations? Daniel 2:43 _____
25. In what context primarily is the word cleave used throughout scripture? Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:5 _____

26. When the Papacy mingles with the nations and enforces a National Sunday Law with persecution for dissenters, their objective is to establish this earth as the throne for Satan.

“This compromise between paganism and Christianity resulted in the development of ‘the man of sin’ foretold in prophecy as opposing and exalting himself above God. That gigantic system of false religion is a masterpiece of Satan’s power—a monument of his efforts to seat himself upon the throne to rule the earth according to his will.” {GC 50.1}

27. What will the Papacy say after the National Sunday Law is passed? Revelation 18:7 _____

28. With whom will the Papacy be involved in an unlawful relationship? Revelation 18:2,3 _____

29. Since the Bible says that they will not cleave, what is one of the reasons why the union between the Papacy and some of the leaders and people of the nations will not last too long after the National Sunday Law is enforced? Revelation 18:1-4 _____

30a. The majority of the messengers that the Lord will use then, will be actively engaged in that same work now. God’s faithful messengers are warning the world of the crisis just ahead; they are found interrupting the agenda and goals of the Papacy.

30b. Pope Francis Says the Devil Is Keeping Evangelicals and Catholics Divided: ‘We Are One; It Is He Who’s Persecuting Christians Today’ The Roman Catholic Church leader insisted that “division is a wound in the body of the church of Christ. And we do not want this wound to remain open.” he said, urging for Christians to seek unity together and pray for one another.

30d. Meditate upon Revelation 13:3,11,12.

31a. Likewise, as God’s messengers see that professed Seventh-day Adventist leaders and people are uniting with the Papacy, her policies, and with her daughters (apostate Protestants), they must present pointed testimonies in order to break up that unlawful relationship.

31b. The following are evidences that Seventh-day Adventists are in an unlawful relationship with the Papacy and her daughters.

<http://www.pastorsleadership.org/media/>

31h. Bear in mind that Sunday observance is called a “child of the Papacy.” See The Great Controversy, page 54.1. Yet Seventh-day Adventists are observing Sunday for worship. And they are trying to justify Sunday worship due to the fact that in one of their churches a Sunday minister acknowledged God’s seventh-day Sabbath and joined the church. The report states that this Sunday minister joined First Seventh-day Adventist church, not through water-baptism, but through simply acknowledging publicly that he believes in the Sabbath.

32. What was the reaction to emperor Constantine’s supposed conversion and joining of the Christian church? Yet how did the Lord view it?

“The nominal conversion of Constantine, in the early part of the fourth century, caused great rejoicing; and the world, cloaked with a form of righteousness, walked into the church. Now the work of corruption rapidly progressed. Paganism, while appearing to be vanquished, became the conqueror. Her spirit controlled the church. Her doctrines, ceremonies, and superstitions were incorporated into the faith and worship of the professed followers of Christ. {GC 49.2}

33. Since the Papacy and the nations are attempting to cleave together and become one; it is clear that these are the last days. It is time for husbands and wives to cleave together. Also in a secondary sense, it is time for parents and children, sibling with sibling to cleave together. What God has joined together, which is the family, let no man put asunder.

34. Primarily, it is time for each one of us to cleave to Jesus. What are God’s promises to us? Deuteronomy 11:22-25

35. What says the Lord regarding the iron and clay in the feet of the image? _____

“We have come to a time when God’s sacred work is represented by the feet of the image in which the iron was mixed with the miry clay. God has a people, a chosen people, whose discernment must be sanctified, who must not become unholy by laying upon the foundation wood, hay, and stubble. Every soul who is loyal to the commandments of God will see that the distinguishing feature of our faith is the seventh day Sabbath. If the government would honor the Sabbath as God has commanded, it would stand in the strength of God and in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints. But statesmen will uphold the spurious Sabbath, and will mingle their religious faith with the observance of this child of the Papacy, placing it above the Sabbath which the Lord has sanctified and blessed, setting it apart for man to keep holy, as a sign between Him and His people to a thousand generations. The mingling of church craft and state craft is represented by the iron and the clay. This union is weakening all the power of the churches. This investing the church with the power of the state will bring evil results. Men have almost passed the point of God’s forbearance. They have invested their strength in politics, and have united with the papacy. But the time will come when God will punish those who have made void His law, and their evil work will recoil upon themselves.” {1MR 51.1}

36. What is the general theme of the crafty, deceptive messages from leaders who are inspired by Satan? Daniel 8:25; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

37. Note: The policies that the Papacy and world leaders are pushing, especially the Papacy, to guarantee peace and safety are deceptive.

38a. On what issues is the Papacy presenting policies to guarantee peace and safety? Answer: The movement to combat climate change.

38f. (Praised Be), a line from St. Francis of Assisi's "Canticle of Creatures." "Praised be you, my Lord, with all your creatures, especially Sir Brother Sun, who is the day, and through whom you give us light," one of the first lines says.

38g. "Thousands deify nature while they deny the God of nature. Though in a different form, idolatry exists in the Christian world today as verily as it existed among ancient Israel in the days of Elijah. The god of many professedly wise men, of philosophers, poets, politicians, journalists--the god of polished fashionable circles, of many colleges and universities, even of some theological institutions--is little better than Baal, the sun-god of Phoenicia." {GC 583.1}

38h. In a "Sabbath Rest and Flourishing" conference, the importance of finding rest in a 24/7 world was set forth at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. The two-day conference at the North Carolina campus was held in partnership with Blessed Earth, an organization dedicated to serving God and caring for His creation. <http://www.bpnews.net/44514/sabbath-rest-sessions-held->

39a. The following shows that many Seventh-day Adventist leaders are promoting crafty policies. They are crying peace and safety, let us all unite, even if the majority of the people vote issues that are unbiblical.

39b. Assistant to the General Conference President, Elder Mark Finley states: "Whatever your viewpoint is on the ordination of women, whether you are convicted on one side of the question or the other, there comes a point when you do not tear the body of Christ apart, Finley said, referring to the church. He added: 'There comes a point where you say, 'We will accept the decision of the corporate body, namely the General Conference session. And whatever my personal view is on that, no matter how I believe I am right, I have come to the conclusion that I will accept as God's will whatever the session votes and move on with our mission.''

39c. "To secure peace and unity they were ready to make any concession consistent with fidelity to God; but they felt that even peace would be too dearly purchased at the sacrifice of principle. If unity could be secured only by the compromise of truth and righteousness, then let there be difference, and even war. Well would it be for the church and the world if the principles that actuated those steadfast souls were revived in the hearts of God's professed people. There is an alarming indifference in regard to the doctrines which are the pillars of the Christian faith. The opinion is gaining ground, that, after all, these are not of vital importance." {GC 45}

40. While the apostates were planning to capture Jesus by craft, describe the scene in Simon's house. What was Mary found doing? Mark 14:1,2,8,9

41. Where did Jesus move once the Jewish leaders began using crafty policies to capture and kill Him? John 11:47-54

42. While the apostates were planning to capture and kill Jesus by craft, Jesus was preparing His disciples for the upper room experience: The washing of feet and partaking of the emblems of His broken body and His spilled blood. See Luke 22:1,2,7-20 and John 13:1-11
