16. Note: Both the Daily and the Abomination of Desolation persecute God's people. See Daniel 8:13. One preceding the other.
17. Who is the Abomination of Desolation or the Transgression of Desolation that takes away the Daily and that rules after the Daily? Daniel 8:9-11 _____
- 18a. What does the Little Horn do? Daniel 7:8,23-25 _____
- 18b. Note: The Papacy fulfills the following words: "Think to change [God's] times and laws." Daniel 7:25.
In the Converts Catechism of Catholic Doctrine we read the following:
"Q. What is the Third Commandment? (Remember they renumbered the God's Ten Commandments)
A. The third Commandment is: Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath day.
Q. Which is the Sabbath day?
A. Saturday is the Sabbath day.
Q. Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday?
A. We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday."
- 18c. Note: The Papacy ruled the world from 538 A.D. to 1798 A.D. During her reign, the Papacy murdered millions of Bible-believing Christians.
"Pope John Paul II led church leaders and followers in sweeping confession, seeking repentance for sins that may have been committed over the past 2,000 years in the name of the church...They fell into seven general categories of wrongs which include, without being too specific, everything from the Crusades to the Inquisition, the forced conversions, to sins against women and anti- Jewish acts. It was a first for the church." <http://www.cnn.com/TRANSCRIPTS/0003/12/sm.06.html>
"Pope Francis offered them to both the Waldensians and the Pentecostals for past Catholic persecution of Protestants...The heads of the delegation of the Catholic Church proposed that any call to stop persecution of Christian should mention first that also Christians in history have persecuted other religions and other churches... 'We are glad that repentance for persecuting each other is part of our message,' he said. 'We see the importance of healing memories wherever this has happened.'" <http://www.christianitytoday.com/gleanings/2015/december/biggest-apology-christian-persecution-global-forum-albania.html>
- 19a. Note: The Papacy speaks great words against Jesus by committing blasphemy. Two primary definitions of blasphemy is a man who claims to be God (John 10:30-33) and a man who claims to be able to forgive sins (Mark 2:5-7).
- 19b. Note: The following shows that the Papacy continues to speak against Jesus.

- 19d. "Pope Francis: Islam, Christianity Share 'Idea of Conquest'" <http://www.newsmax.com/Newsfront/pope-islam-christianity-share/2016/05/17/id/729254/>

19e. "Today, I don't think that there is a fear of Islam as such but of ISIS and its war of conquest, which is partly drawn from Islam," he told French newspaper La Croix. "It is true that the idea of conquest is inherent in the soul of Islam, however, it is also possible to interpret the objective in Matthew's Gospel, where Jesus sends his disciples to all nations, in terms of the same idea of conquest."

19f. "Pope Francis: Jesus' Life 'Ended in Failure'" <http://www.charismanews.com/world/52394-pope-francis-jesus-life-ended-in-failure>

19g. "We know what Jesus did on that occasion." Francis reminded faithful. "Instead of returning home with his family, he stayed in Jerusalem, in the Temple, causing great distress to Mary and Joseph who were unable to find him. For this little "escapade", Jesus probably had to beg forgiveness of his parents. The Gospel doesn't say this, but I believe that we can presume it. Mary's question, moreover, contains a certain reproach, revealing the concern and anguish which she and Joseph felt. Returning home, Jesus surely remained close to them, as a sign of his complete affection and obedience." <http://www.lastampa.it/2015/12/27/vaticaninsider/eng/the-vatican/francis-let-us-not-lose-confidence-in-the-family-ZEBdrJew2DzP7q7e0DmAQN/pagina.html>

19h. Note: Contrary to what Pope Francis said about Jesus, Jesus did not have to beg forgiveness from His parents. What did Jesus respond and say to Mary? Luke 2:48,49

19i. What warning does the Bible give? Revelation 22:18,19 _____

20a. Note: The Little Horn is the Papacy and the Abomination of Desolation.

20b. Note: Which nation ruled the world before the Papacy? Answer: The pagan Roman Empire. Therefore, the Roman Empire is the Daily. "How was the daily, or paganism, taken away? As this is spoken of in connection with the placing or setting up of the abomination of desolation, or the papacy...As we approach the year A.D.508, we behold a grand crisis ripening between Catholicism and the pagan influences still existing in the empire. Up to the time of the conversion of Clovis, king of France, A.D.496, the French and other nations of Western Rome were pagan; but subsequently to that event, the efforts to convert idolaters to Romanism were crowned with great success. The conversion of Clovis is said to have been the occasion of bestowing upon the French monarch the titles of 'Most Christian Majesty' and 'Eldest Son of the Church'... When the prominent powers of Europe gave up their attachment to paganism, it was only to perpetuate its abominations in another form; for Christianity, as exhibited in the Catholic Church, was, and is, only paganism baptized." {1897 UrS, DAR 283.3}

21. What did the Roman Empire do significantly?

"Gay marriage was—surprise!—alive and well in Rome, celebrated even and especially by select emperors, a spin-off of the general cultural affirmation of Roman homosexuality. Gay marriage was, along with homosexuality, something the first Christians faced as part of the pagan moral darkness of their time. What Christians are fighting against today, then, is not yet another sexual innovation peculiar to our "enlightened age," but the return to pre-Christian, pagan sexual morality.

22. What have the nations done, including the United States of America? Answer: The majority have legalized same-sex unions and are passing laws to support the sinful lifestyle practices of the LGBT community.

"Yes, the feds could pull North Carolina's education funding for violating transgender civil rights" <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/education/wp/2016/05/09/yes-the-feds-could-pull-north-carolinas-education-funding-for-violating-transgender-civil-rights/>

<http://prophesyagain.org/loretta-lynch-n-c-bathroom-law-is-state-sponsored-discrimination-her-department-guilty-of-same/>

23. Note: The Daily or Paganism must be taken out of the way and will give rise to the Papacy and the union of church and state. See Daniel 12:11 and Daniel 8:11.

24. What will happen in the United States of America and around the world, since paganism is prevalent all over? Answer: The false union of church and state.

25. What will follow when the union of church and state takes place? Daniel 7:25 and Revelation 13:11,12,15-17 _____

26. The following shows that paganism is prevalent and God's people are being forced to be silent against the sins of the LGBT community and to accept such sinful lifestyle practices in their schools, churches, and other institutions.

It's all over but the funeral. Free speech and religious liberty are now effectively dead in Canada, and recent developments across our northern border should awaken Americans to the peril of political correctness and its restrictions on freedom.

On April 28, the Canadian Senate passed bill C-250 by a vote of 59 to 11. In passing this legislation, the Canadian Parliament added "sexual orientation" to the nation's laws criminalizing "hate speech." The end result is that the Bible may now be considered a form of criminalized hate literature and Christians who teach that homosexuality is sinful may face criminal charges.

When preachers are told that they will "have to exercise caution in how they express their views," religious liberty is effectively dead. This is especially clear when comments made by the bill's proponents identify any criticism of homosexuality--whatever its motivation and form--as criminalized hate speech.

"Today the Senate sounded the final death knell in legislation that will severely limit free speech and freedom of religion and even freedom of the press in Canada," said Brian Rushfeldt, executive director of the Canada Family Action Coalition. Rushfeldt described C-250 as "a draconian piece of legislation that will criminalize people who express an opinion contrary to homosexual behavior, including views based on religion, morality..." "Given the undefined, ambiguous wording in this severely flawed piece of legislation, Christians and other faith groups are worried that expressing their religious or moral views, or even quoting from the Bible or another religious text, may become a criminal act." The pattern of criminalizing speech about homosexuals is spreading across liberal societies. In Sweden, pastors are explicitly warned that any sermons critical of homosexuality can lead to criminal charges. The same logic is spreading through the courts and legislatures of many European countries--and now has jumped the Atlantic to Canada.

The most important part of the newly-revised criminal code reads: "Every one who, by communicating statements, other than in private conversation, willfully promotes hatred against any identifiable group is guilty of . . . an indictable offense and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years."

We are fooling ourselves if we believe this threat to religious liberty will not cross our border. This same logic is already accepted by many law professors and judges in the United States. The passage of C-250 is a warning to us all. When free speech is denied and the preachers are told what they can and cannot say, religious liberty is effectively dead. <http://www.christianheadlines.com/columnists/al-mohler/the-end-of-religious-liberty-in-canada-1264412.html>

27. Note: The previous statement sheds light on the following statement regarding civil officials in Canada viewing the book The Great Controversy as "hate literature."

Back in the 1980s, I was the Church Ministries Director of the Quebec Conference. I was alone at the office when the phone rang. I was instantly startled by the tone of the voice at the other end. An angry man went on the attack: "Is this the headquarters of the Seventh-day Adventist Church?" I asked who he was. "I am the police commissioner of Montreal." Somewhat frazzled, I asked him the reason of his call and obvious unhappiness. "We have received numerous complaints about a book entitled The Great Controversy that is being placed in letter boxes in a "wealthy section" of the city. After some research we have identified your Church as the publisher and distributor. A quick perusal has clearly shown that the book is very anti the Catholic Church and thus falls in the category of 'Hate Literature' because its content can easily create hatred between communities". Then he quoted from an article of law that prohibited such an action and mentioned the heavy fine that went along for distributing material attacking another church. <http://spectrummagazine.org/node/3362>

28. Note: Based on the previous statement, it is evident that we are living in the time of another Exodus. The Exodus took place in the days of Moses because the Hebrews could no longer worship God publicly without offending the Egyptians and being prosecuted, persecuted and even being killed. Exodus 8:25-27.

29a. Additionally, the following reports show that Jesus is about to return.

29b. "Sheriff Joe Arpaio fights bestiality with Craigslist stings: 'This is my crusade'" <http://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2016/may/20/arizona-sheriff-joe-arpaio-beastiality-video-craigslist-trump>

29c. "Police: Mesa man engaged in bestiality, exploited minors" Mesa police arrested a 21-year-old man Tuesday after investigators said he was involved in a sexual relationship with a pair of 12-year-old Kansas girls and had engaged in sexual activity with a dog, according to court records. <http://www.azcentral.com/story/news/local/mesa-breaking/2016/04/13/mesa-arizona-arrest-bestiality-overland-park/82996540/>

29d. "Gov. Chris Christie signed a measure into law Monday that bans bestiality in the state of New Jersey, a change that takes effect immediately." <http://www.washingtonexaminer.com/christie-bans-bestiality-in-new-jersey/article/2575983>

29e. "Denmark's Bestiality Problem: It's Legal" Amazingly, the Danes, Finns, Hungarians and Swedes currently say it's legal to have sex with animals as long as the animals are not hurt. But ... how would you know?" <http://www.thedailybeast.com/articles/2014/10/14/denmark-s-bestiality-problem-it-s-legal.html>

29f. Note: The previous news reports are a fulfillment of Leviticus 18:23-29; Jesus is about to come for He will spew out the nations.

29g. "In Search For Cures, Scientists Create Embryos That Are Both Animal And Human" <http://www.npr.org/sections/health-shots/2016/05/18/478212837/in-search-for-cures-scientists-create-embryos-that-are-both-animal-and-human>

29h. "But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere. God purposed to destroy by a flood that powerful, long-lived race that had corrupted their ways before him. He would not suffer them to live out the days of their natural life, which would be hundreds of years. It was only a few generations back when Adam had access to that tree which was to prolong life." {Spiritual Gifts, Volume 3, 64.1}

30. Note: These facts show that human probation is about to close. The following report is another step in the fulfillment of Revelation 13:3,4, 11-17, the healing of the deadly wound of the Papacy and the return of persecution for God's commandment-keeping people.

"With this clear distinction from all other commemorations of past centuries, we are sending a signal of reconciliation and a new beginning. The commemoration marks the day in 1517 on which Martin Luther is said to have posted his 95 theses denouncing church abuses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg. Luther's actions set in motion events that led to the Reformation and the division of western Christianity into Roman Catholic and Protestant churches. The start of the year-long anniversary events will be marked in Germany on 31 October 2016 with a service in Berlin. On the same day, Pope Francis and Bishop Munib Younan, president of the Lutheran World Federation (LWF), will celebrate an ecumenical service in Lund in Sweden, where the LWF was founded in 1947. They will pray for forgiveness and the healing of the wounds the confessions inflicted on each other over the centuries.... This will be followed in March 2017 by a joint service of penitence and reconciliation by the Protestant and Catholic churches in Germany."
